STONEYBROOK GOES VIRTUAL!

Due to concerns over the spread of COVID-19 at social gatherings, Stoneybrook will still be presenting our Sunday worship service on Facebook LIVE only.

We WILL NOT have a public service.

Also if you would like to join us in communion or Sunday mornings make sure to buy some bread and grape juice from the grocery store while you are out this week.

The WEDNESDAY NIGHT MEAL is also CANCELLED until further notice. Wednesday night at 6:30p.m. make sure to join us for a Eats with Sinners discussion with Mark Woolard, Joe Testino and Steve Haggerty– maybe more!

Join them as they discuss the book– Eats with Sinners and Sundays sermon while you can comment in the comfort of your own home.

To ensure a quick recovery from this health threat it is important that we all do our part in keeping both our own personal health safe and safeguarding the health of others. Follow the guidelines of the President and the Governor. Wash your hands often and avoid public gatherings.

With God's help and by using the common sense He gave us, we will get through this crisis and be better for it. Tune in this Sunday as we will consider the topic of Grace. We will also talk about how we can use this troubling time to touch the lives of the lost.

See you on Facebook! God bless! Mark Woolard

Eats with Sinners

The series will be based on the book by the same title written by Christian author and pastor, Arron Chambers. In his description of the book Arron wrote, “We worry about trying to build intentional relationships with non-Christians: Will we understand one another? Will we offend them? How uncomfortable will it be? Jesus regularly ate with sinners – people in need of God, just like you and me. Why? Because Jesus longed to eat with them in heaven. The incredible journey of following Jesus involves sharing who he is while sharing our lives with others. Over food and drink, through conversations filled with stories and insights, people come to know the love of God and the hope of salvation.”

For the next few weeks we will explore this image of Jesus as he “eats with sinners” and see how we can do the same thing. How can we get prepared? What obstacles stand in our way? How can we be intentional in seeking opportunities to eat with people in our lives who need God? Join us on the journey.
