The "short" LETTERS of the New Testament

How many of us can quote passages from the "short" LETTERS of the New Testament? How many of us could say what they are even about? The "short" LETTERS of the New Testament are:

Titus, Philemon, 2 John, 3 John and Jude.

For the next few weeks, let's explore these little known, little letters of the New Testament. What nuggets of wisdom are hidden in these often-neglected passages?

Join us as we consider, The "short" LETTERS of the New Testament.

Adult Sunday School every Sunday at 9:30a.m.

In Person Worship every Sunday at 10:30a.m.

Please be respectful of the requirement that everyone wears a facial mask covering their mouth and nose at all times, continue to social distance (6 feet apart) and wash your hands or sanitize frequently.

Each week we sanitize our sanctuary and chairs .

We will still be offering the Wednesday Evening Zoom Discussion at 6:30p.m. and the Facebook Live Service on Sunday Mornings at 10:30a.m..

HERE'S 6 REASON WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN A MINISTRY!

1. You get to serve God in an organized setting!
2. You serve God and people, by bringing your acquired skills, ideas, and experiences to the table.
3. You gain fellowship with other believers. Fellowship is a big deal that few people purposely choose to live without.
4. You build on your skill sets. Looking to list work experience? Start with your ministry! Explain why serving as the graphics design, administrative assistant, or sound engineer at your church wouldn't count as relevant experience on a resume?
5. You enjoy purpose.
6. You can develop leadership skills. The ability to lead is cultivated—no one acquires it overnight. Ministry is a perfect place to develop leadership skills, and in every ministry, they are direly needed.

Contact Mark Woolard or Leslie Lafferty if you are interested in any of these ministry opportunities. Church office (252) 243-2335 or email scc@stoneybrookchurch.com.
