The “short” LETTERS of the New Testament

How many of us can quote passages from the “short” LETTERS of the New Testament? How many of us could say what they are even about? The “short” LETTERS of the New Testament are:

Titus, Philemon, 2 John, 3 John and Jude.

For the next few weeks, let’s explore these little known, little letters of the New Testament. What nuggets of wisdom are hidden in these often-neglected passages?

Join us as we continue to consider, The “short” LETTERS of the New Testament.
